

I, the undersigned, desire to travel internationally under the auspices of Humanity Auxilium. I understand that such travel may be hazardous and involve the risk of injury, sickness and possibly death, as well as damage to property, when traveling to and from and/or within these international destinations. I understand that I may need to travel and live in very primitive areas, risk violence from crime, war, terrorism, political unrest and other dangers, and may be exposed to food and water-borne diseases and to disease from other carriers or while traveling internationally. I understand that some diseases may not produce symptoms during the actual trip, but may occur after the trip. I also understand that medical facilities abroad may not be of the quality of medical facilities in my residential country.

I understand that there may be delays and sudden change of schedules and/or cancellation of schedules. While reasonable care will be taken in selecting transportation, I understand that breakdowns and delays may occur. I understand that circumstances may arise such that I might be asked not to go on this trip or to return early, and that only those monies refunded to Humanity Auxilium or still in the possession of Humanity Auxilium may be refunded to me.

I acknowledge that I am in good physical condition. I understand also that the journey may involve strenuous physical activity, including, but not limited to, long walks and hiking in hills and or/mountainous areas.

I understand and acknowledge that while Humanity Auxilium may take reasonable steps to insure my safety during travel and while participating in Humanity Auxilium sponsored activities while abroad, that these precautions are merely made in good faith and do not warrant acceptance of liability, nor guarantee that actions undertaken will demonstrate and/or constitute non-negligent performance therein by the organization, its agents or assignees.

I voluntarily and personally assume the risk of any and all consequences of my travel with Humanity Auxilium and those partnering ministries and organizations selected by Humanity Auxilium to provide travel. I expressly waive my right and the right of any of my heirs, legal representatives and assigns to sue or otherwise collect damages of any kind from Humanity Auxilium, its officers, personnel or volunteers, resulting from any cause whatsoever including but not limited to sickness, personal injury, property damage, delay, and change of schedule, wrongful death, theft or loss of property.

In the event any term or provision of this WAIVER OF LIABILITY is found to be unenforceable or void, in whole or in part, then the offending term shall be construed as valid and enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the balance with this WAIVER OF LIABILITY shall remain in full force and effect.

I, the undersigned, have voluntarily and without duress signed this WAIVER OF LIABILITY form. I assert that I have read and fully understand the above WAIVER OF LIABILITY, and that I agree to accept the terms of this WAIVER OF LIABILITY in full.
